

REVISION IN ISO STANDARD

NRBPT (QCI) ACCREDITATION TO MCCIA

ISO standard for Quality Management System ISO 9001:2000 has now been revised to ISO 9001:2008 with effect from 15.11.2008. The certifications issued as per ISO:9001:2000 will be valid till 14.11.2010 only and will be valid thereafter.

MCCIA provides professional Pre-Certification Consultancy Service for QMS 9001:2008, at a reasonable fee, through a panel of qualified and experienced Consultants and will help you derive true benefits of an ISO system.

It gives us a great pleasure to inform you that MCCIA has been accredited by the NRBPT as a QMS Consultant Organization. Micro and Small Enterprises obtaining consultancy services from MCCIA will become eligible to make claim for one time reimbursement of expenses incurred for acquiring ISO certification from the Government of India subject to certain compliances.

As per the revised guidelines and rules for re-imbusement of consultancy expenses incurred towards acquiring ISO 9001:2000 certification, the Micro and Small Enterprise, need to get the pre-certification consultancy from a consultant who is accredited by the National Registration Board for Personnel & Training (NRBPT), a division of Quality Council of India, New Delhi or from the consultant organization recognized by them.
